FLOOR DEBATE

March 5, 2001 LB 505

year. The revolving fund, which this is...this amendment is, has to do with...that the Workmen's Comp Revolving Fund can continue to pay out their payments in a timely manner by increasing their spending authority.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So in a sense, if I were upset with the budget, then I'm letting your amendment ride to safety on LB 505, more or less?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would you agree?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...only in a remote sense because this has to do with a particular fund in Game and Parks and LB 505. The one in DAS Workmen's Comp would have ramifications beyond what...because it would hurt those that are needing payments under the Workmen's Comp Revolving Fund.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I understand all that, but if was my intent to go after the budget, I'm letting something go by, by not opposing this at this time, would you agree?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well, I guess that's the eyes of the beholder, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Laugh) Thank you. Senator Wehrbein hit me with something that I cannot fight against so I'm going to leave these bills alone, except that I want to ask Senator Engel a question about his part of the bill, then I'll be through with it.

SENATOR ENGEL: Yes, sir.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Engel, where does the money come from that go...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Engel, would you yield?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...oh, where does the money come from that goes into this Game and Parks Cash Fund?
